SCHOOL & MASS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

The 24th July 2025

No. 20108—SME-TRG-TRG-0114/2020-SME.—In pursuance of this Department Notification No. 5053, dated the 3rd March 2021, the administrative control of all the teaching staff belonging to OES (CB) Cadre, other teachers, all movable and immovable properties including all accessories, stocks, stores, etc. of 15 B.Ed. Colleges have already been transferred to the Higher Education Department with effect from the 1st June 2021. Further, necessary Budget provision has been made by the Higher Education Department to run these 15 training colleges from the date of transfer.

As per the terms & conditions specified at Point No. 5 in the aforesaid Notification, the Class- III & IV employees of the training colleges will remain under School & Mass Education Department, but they will continue to work in the training colleges till posting of personnel in those posts by the Higher Education Department is made.

Now, after careful consideration, the Government have been pleased to withdraw Point No. 5 of the aforesaid Notification and as such, all the Class- III & IV employees of the training colleges will remain under the administrative control of the Higher Education Department with immediate effect in order to avoid legal complicacy in future.
